From the Pastor...

With the presidential primaries, there has been more talk by the media and the candidates about God, faith, and beliefs recently. Several of the candidates have declared their positions on issues as based on their religious values, and I hear an undertone of "If you elect me, this country will be run as God had intended it to be." While that sentiment is very appealing, that did not seem to be part of Jesus' intentions nor of the early church. Actually, the early church was on the margins as it chose to place its allegiance in God rather than Rome. While Rome was interested in wealth and power, Jesus and the early church knew their power was in their weakness and sought to meet the needs of others. They lived this by reaching out to those with whom Romans and the Jewish authorities would not associate to let them know they were loved and valued by God. They reached out to the "invisibles" of their society. The questions for us as a congregation are: Who are the invisibles in Lancaster County in 2016? How are we reaching out to them? Are there any in our congregation?

It has long been said that Sunday morning is the most segregated time of the week and yet, according to Paul's writing, the early church was about inclusion. It was about realizing that "What God has made clean, you must not call profane." The church was God's great social experiment to see if people with many differences could unite under a commitment to live faithfully to God, even if it went against the popular culture of the time. The early church did not reflect the values of the culture. It reflected God's values, but this is a loaded question as Christians interpret the Bible very differently.

As your Senior Pastor, it is my goal to look for the "invisibles" in our congregation and in our community. Within our congregation, the Worship Commission and I want our worship services to be accessible to all, so we need to hear from those who struggle to participate or understand what we are doing. We particularly want to connect with those who are unsure if they fit in here. During the season of Easter, we will be focusing on the early church through the Book of Acts and looking specifically at the role of grace, love, newness, holiness, table and flourishing within the Body of Christ.

Blessings & peace -

Pastor Kuhn

The City

— Michelle Ayala, Administrative & Communications Coordinator

By now, you might have heard some talk about an application called “The City” and how Church of the Apostles (COA) plans to use this new form of communication. So what is The City? The City is a private online community where church members can join groups, build relationships, and find new ways to connect and do ministry together. This application will give us a unified platform to share church news, announcements, group or direct messages, volunteer opportunities, needs, prayer requests, etc.

Here are a few ways everyone at COA will use The City:

- To keep accurate contact information: The most exciting feature of The City is its ability to sync with ACS, so you will be able to update your contact information on The City whenever something changes and COA’s records will be automatically be updated too. You will be able to look up other members’ phone numbers if they choose to share that information.
- To manage events: All event details from the planning process to registration to follow-up can be managed in one place.
- To manage a shared calendar: Members will be kept updated on what’s going on with calendars to organize meetings, events, and other group activities.

- To keep everyone in the loop: When you post something on The City, your message will get to the right individual or group the way they prefer to receive it – via email or a mobile notification on their phone.
- To serve each other: The City gives members a way to extend a helping hand to those in need. Do you need a ride to church? A meal delivered? Help moving? Members will be able to sign up to help meet each other’s needs.
- And much more...

We are in the process of completing the steps on our end that need to be finalized in order to officially launch The City. Within the next two weeks, you will be receiving an email invitation to become a member of The City. Please look out for this email, and remember to check your spam/junk mail folders too. The sign-up process is simple – just use the link in the email to create an account with your contact information. We will then send you additional invitations to join any church groups or teams you are a member of. Once you sign up, feel free to browse The City to learn more about it.

In order to help answer any questions, we will also set up a few demonstration sessions after services so that you can see how The City works. We will notify you of the dates once they are determined.

Sundays at 9:15 a.m. and 10:45 a.m.

Dial (717) 392-5718 to listen to the worship information.

The sermon can be watched online at www.apostlesucc.org

Giving Report for February 2016

February was a substantially better month financially for Church of the Apostles than January this year. We have contributions of $4,867.23 more this month than the same month last year, a wonderfully positive trend. Unfortunately, our expenses have increased by $2,993.26 over last year. We find ourselves in a small deficit of $3,863.57.

The actual numbers are: revenues of $79,054.73 for this year and $74,187.50 for last year. The expenses also trended up with $82,918.30 for this year and $79,925.04 for last year. It is too early in the year to see any kind of trend developing, but because our pledged amounts for 2016 increased, we should see a positive trend in our income for the year.

The City Continued...

COA looks forward to implementing this great communication tool and using it to meet the needs of our members, newcomers, and the community. Communication is key in COA's vision of "Sharing Christ's Love with All People."

Outreach

Thank you!

Jesus said to Simon "Feed my lambs...tend my sheep... feed my sheep." John 21:15-17

The Outreach and Education Commissions want to thank all of the volunteers that helped feed 55 hungry and appreciative guests at Crispus Attucks on March 13th. Preparations began days before with seven volunteers of our kitchen ministry preparing a batch of ham and bean soup. During Sunday School's Mission Fest, the children and youth helped ice and decorate cookies. Later that day, volunteers warmed soup, made sandwiches, and organized supplies. Seventeen members, including seven youth, met at Crispus Attucks to set up and serve the meal. Socks and underwear that had been collected were offered to those present. Many of our guests had second and third helpings and the leftover soup, sandwiches, and cookies were served the following day at Crispus Attucks Café, its weekday lunch program. Two more volunteers were waiting at our church kitchen to help with clean up after a long day. Thank you to the many volunteers of varying ages that helped make this important ministry possible!

Missionary Support

You should notice an envelope in your box for missionary support. That special gift will be given to Global Ministries this month.

The missionary that our church supported in the past is retiring. Outreach decided on a new missionary this year—one who is working in Honduras. Honduras was a strong mission in the past for the Evangelical and Reformed Church, which included our two past churches: St. John's and St. Paul's. The Evangelical and Reformed Church in Honduras remains, having not merged into the UCC. This mission site is not too far from Andy Appel's mission.

Maryjane and Donald Westra are members of a UCC church in Minnesota, but now serve the Evangelical and Reformed Church of Honduras. Their mission is to work with a vocational school (CEVER) which relates work to spiritual and moral development. The student ages range from 14 to 30.

Don thought his background as a business owner, mechanical engineer, and farm kid would fit with a vocational school. Vocational schools are important in Honduras where unemployment is 40-50%. The fear is that the country's youth will be swallowed up by the gangs. Fear is prevalent and finding enough to eat in the arid areas is a full-time job with clean water also being hard to find in the country. CEVER's greatest challenge is funding. We can help with that.

Don says that to be effective in mission, humility is almost a requirement. He quotes Micah 6:8. "and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly."

Wishing Well

Thank you for continuing to support TLC with your generous giving. We will continue collecting items for TLC until the end of April. Please consider donating by taking a paper from one of the two boards and purchasing that item. Place the items in the Wishing Well by the end of April.

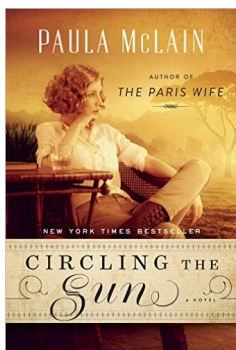

During the month of May we will be holding a pajama party in the Well! We will be collecting children's pajamas to support Conner's Comfy PJs. This is a foundation begun by the Holland family in Lititz who lost their son, Conner, to cancer at the age of five. They collect comfy pajamas for children in oncology wards undergoing treatments for cancer. As always, thank you for your generous and consistent giving to support our many outreach ministries. If you have any questions about Wishing Well ministries, please see Jane McCartney.

Celebrating Earth Day

On Sunday, April 17, we will celebrate Earth Day in worship as we continue to be good stewards of God's wonderful gift. Rev. Giffen will be preaching this day based on her understandings and experience with the indigenous people in Minnesota at All Nations Indian Church United Church of Christ.

As we celebrate the earth we have been given, you may wish to explore our own Rader Park. Personal tours of the grounds may be scheduled through Gary Brown. The Outreach Commission also has tentatively scheduled a clean-up day for Good Drive on Saturday, April 16.

Please be conscious of your impact on the earth and promise to practice "leave no trace."

New Moms Support

Volunteers are needed to take meals to Melissa and Dustin Koehler. Their new baby boy, Maxwell, was born on March 14th. Please contact Donna Carr at (717) 475-5285 or at her home phone (717) 397-6305 if you are able to help. Thank you!

Unsung Helper

This month, we recognize Larry Rongione. Larry is the smiling gentleman who opens the door and greets you as you enter the Narthex on Sunday morning. He also makes the coffee so it is ready in time for the Hospitality table. After this, he cleans up the crumbs on the floor and cleans up the coffee pots. He keeps Parish Life informed on the supply of coffee available. Thank you,

Larry, for your smile and positive attitude as well as the "extras" you do.

Thank You!

For everyone who brought us a meal:
Thank you so much for your support after Andrew was born. The meals were so helpful and delicious! We are so grateful to have been welcomed into your community with open arms and warm hearts.
Ashley, Erik, and Andrew Laymon

Stanley and I really appreciate the charming visit by Mr. Andrew Appel. He presented a yellow rose to Stanley to celebrate Stan's 92nd birthday. We are also thankful to the Church of the Apostles for all the wonderful deeds they do.

Blessings to all,
Stan and Irene Buch

We thank you members for the beautiful flowers that Andy Appel delivered to our home and to Pastor Kathy for her visits.
Paul and Alice Rye

Thank you to all of the church members who brought me altar flowers during my stays in the hospital and at Homestead Village. Your thoughtfulness was very much appreciated. I hope to be back in church in the very near future.
Sandy Hess

Many thanks for your concern and the prayers and for the beautiful flowers sent to me.

Love,
Helen Ott

To the many loving COA members,
Our extended thanks for your symbol of love as again demonstrated in your recent gift of most gorgeous flowers. Such beauty is very rare in our local scene!
Jane & Bill Higgs

Your thoughtfulness is appreciated! Thank you for the beautiful flowers.

“Let’s Talk” is THIS SUNDAY!

Calling all parents, grandparents, and anyone else who works with children and youth – you won’t want to miss this important informational workshop with tips for talking about sex with the young people in our lives! Plan to join us on Sunday, April 3, from 6:30-8:00 pm, in Rooms 308-310. Free childcare provided in the Fellowship Hall. RSVP encouraged but not required; email Flo Waldron at waldr005@umn.edu. For more information, see the flyer below and the announcement on the church’s homepage. We look forward to seeing you there!

Let's Talk:

How to Have a Lifelong Conversation about Sex

Sunday, April 3 (note new date!) from 6:30 pm-8:00 pm
Rooms 308-310 (next to the Purple Bears room)

Church of the Apostles • 1850 Marietta Ave • Lancaster, PA 17603

Co-sponsored by the Unitarian Universalist Church of Lancaster and Church of the Apostles UCC

Talking about sex with the young people in your life is not easy!

- Many of us feel uncomfortable even thinking about having that conversation with our children or grandchildren.
- Sexual imagery and messages are everywhere in our 21st-century culture.
- Yet, real and honest conversations are few and far between.
- And while many parents think of a one-time conversation for the tween years, children start learning about sexuality as soon as they’re born.
- By the time many parents are ready to “talk,” kids already have lots of information – much of it inaccurate, misleading, or less-than-positive.

In this workshop, we will explore our discomfort around sex and learn some age-appropriate strategies for turning "the talk" into a lifelong conversation about sexuality and health, whether your children are preschoolers or high-schoolers.

Kelly Gainor, a Community Health Educator for Planned Parenthood Keystone, serving Lancaster, Dauphin, Cumberland, and York counties, will lead this workshop. Kelly provides medically-accurate sexuality education to students of all ages, and is the coordinator of an LGBTQA+ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Asexual) youth program, called The Curve which meets on Thursdays in York. She has a Master’s Degree in Human Sexuality Education from Widener University and has presented at several sexuality conferences, including the National Sex Ed Conference in New Jersey.

Parents, grandparents, and guardians are invited to attend. Childcare is available in the Fellowship Hall for all ages from 6:15-8:15. If possible, RVSPs (for adult attendees + number/ages of children needing childcare, if any) are appreciated ahead of time, and can be sent to Flo Waldron at waldr005@umn.edu.

Let Us Celebrate 50 Years of Apostles Community Preschool

Can you believe it? It has been 50 years since our precious little ones have been offered the opportunity to grow, learn, share, and love Jesus. Rev. Glenn and Janet Rader's vision of a church-based, weekday preschool program has continued to thrive for 50 years. Every year, a new assortment of eager angelic faces come to fill their hearts, minds, and souls with new information on their way to becoming better students in later years. Children and adults have many memories of their days at Apostles Community Preschool.

Directors have come and gone over the years as they passed their torch of wisdom to another generation of teachers. Our present Director is Julia Connolly; Linda Lewis is the Registrar. Both ladies work many hours to ensure a smooth operation for our children's learning and safety while at Preschool. Like others before them, they help the children, teachers, and parents adjust to growing inquisitive minds.

It goes without saying, that our teachers are the gentle nudge who transform our little ones into confident preschoolers ready for the big adventure of school. It takes much talent, creativeness, patience, and love from each of our qualified teachers. They do an amazing job with our little people.

On Sunday, April 24, the celebration will begin with colorful bear cookies and other goodies in the Narthex between church services. After the second service, a luncheon will be available to those folks from the past preschool years. Past directors and board members will be contacted, and past and present teachers will be encouraged to attend. Plans are being made for a short program and opportunities for sharing memories. Come and help celebrate 50 years of fun!

The cost of our flowers and bulletins averages about $140.00 a week. Our suggested contribution for sponsoring flowers and bulletins is $35.00; however, any amount is welcomed and appreciated.

If you would like to sponsor flowers, please fill out the form below and place it in the offering plate or send it into the office. A thank you letter will be sent following your sponsorship with directions for sending in your donation. Thank you for your support in this important ministry.
