Pastors

Church of the Apostles would like to help and comfort you during your time of loss. Upon the death of a family member, a pastor should be notified as soon as possible, so that we may aid you as we can.

Church of the Apostles is available for funerals and memorial services of both members and visitors. We also hold memorial services in our Memorial Garden. One of the pastors will handle the details of either service with you, with your wishes being of paramount importance.

A pastor of Church of the Apostles will plan and officiate at all memorial services and funerals held in the church. Additionally, another pastor may assist. Family, friends or appropriate others are invited to share in the service.

Music

The Organist/Director of Music Ministries of Church of the Apostles plans music appropriate for services in consultation with the pastor and the family.

The Organist/Director of Music Ministries usually plays at memorial services or funerals, unless other arrangements are made through the Director of Music Ministries.

Flowers & Other Decorations

pastor.

Flowers in the Sanctuary should be tastefully arranged, with final approval by the pastor. Additional flower arrangements may be placed in the Narthex (lobby). Other decorations must be approved by the

Casket

The casket, if present, will be covered by a pall owned by Church of the Apostles. Viewings may precede the funeral service, if desired, in the Parlor. An arrangement of flowers may be placed on top of the casket. Any other casket coverings or arrangements must be approved by the pastor. The casket remains closed during worship.

Bulletins

Funeral/memorial service bulletins can be prepared in the church office or by the funeral home — the choice is yours. Please let the pastor know your decision. The pastor will also determine the order of service with you. (The church office will prepare the bulletin for no additional cost.)

Receptions

The Parish Life Commission is available to provide a reception for members of the church after a funeral or memorial service. Their services include ordering food, set up and clean up. Menu options are available, at cost. If you are interested in holding a reception at the church, please contact the church office.
