In the contentious times in which we live, we are beginning to see areas of the church publicly act in ways which seem counter to our understanding of the Bible and especially Jesus' teachings. So it seemed appropriate this summer to explore what it really means to be the Christian people of God. Particular areas to be covered this month will be the Ten Commandments, prayer, sharing our resources, and loving our neighbors.

As a major part of our identity is serving our community, we have set aside Sunday, September 1 to be a day with one worship service at 10 AM followed by service in the community. To make this initiative successful, we need to know of projects that need to be done either for elderly or infirmed members of our congregation, neighbors, our facility or community organizations in our area. If you have a recommendation, please submit it to the church office with your name and in August we will let you know which ones have been chosen. Please help us to touch the lives of others through the love of Christ.

Our congregation is not taking the summer off, but we are in planning mode for the next year. So if you have energy to assist us, please connect with a member of our Council or one of our Commissions to share your gifts of time and energy.

Blessings & peace -

Pastor Kuhn

Letter from the President

I would like to invite you to imagine a scenario with me. You come to church on Sunday morning and open the front door, mingle a bit in the Narthex and head to the Sanctuary. To your right is a table with the bulletins, you pick one up and head to your favorite pew (because we all have one, right??) Service starts, the pastor lights the candles on the altar and leads you through worship with only the piano music throughout. After the service, the pastor extinguishes the candles and exits the sanctuary. You follow and drop your offering in the basket on the way out. In the Narthex, you find the fellowship table empty and most people have headed out the door, so you follow suit. The next time the church crosses your mind is the following Sunday when it's time to get ready. Now, imagine that the previous Sunday was your first time visiting that church. Although, the message the pastor gave was good...do you return?

What was missing? How warm was the greeting as you entered the church, got your bulletin and headed to the pew? Do you bother to give when there is no usher to collect and singers during the offertory anthem? Who carried the light into the world if there is no acolyte? How do you fellowship with no food? (I'm Italian – there always needs to be food!!)

All of these things are handled by volunteers, but is that really the correct word to use? I had read an article a few years ago stressing the need to use different terminology. The author likened church volunteers to a father babysitting his kids while the mother is out. "We do not babysit that which is ours." Same is true in the church, we do not volunteer, for we are the church. We SERVE as greeter, we SERVE as fellowship hosts, ushers, choir members, we SERVE on committees, and make the church look and behave its best. Just like we do for children. We want it to be at its best when someone new comes around!! Whatever the job, we SERVE. It is a ministry. We are not an outside source volunteering at a business for a short time. We are investing in the church.

There are so many facets to running a church, and running it well. There is very little paid staff to accomplish all that needs to be done. So that is where we come in, as members. We have a tremendous congregation that steps up to the call to serve the church. But we need to recognize that burnout can happen when a select few take on too much. I have witnessed numerous times within the past year, members that have said "I need to step down, this is too much," but they cannot, because they are concerned that no one will step up and take their place. How can we honor the contributions they have made if we do not recognize that they need a break?

"We do not babysit that which is ours," so we need to all work together. We all need to set our personal boundaries and adhere to them. If we share the load, we will continue to be the inviting, well-mannered church that the community knows we are; and we WILL have food!!

Blessings,

Christa DiDomenico Conrad

Council Minutes

CHURCH OF THE APOSTLES COUNCIL MINUTES May 20, 2019

Present: Christa Conrad, Barbara Achtermann, Betsy Bischoff, Donna Carr, Jeannie Clausen, John Eshbach, Herb Forry, Marty Holmes, Linda Lewis, Mark Reinhardt, Kathy Kuhn, Ex Officio.

Excused: Delaney Breslin, Bernie Fickes, Todd Harris, Stephanie Moore, Andy Smith.

Call to Order: 7:05pm by Christa Conrad, President

Devotions: John Eshbach began by sharing pictures and history of the original St. John's German Reformed Church. He led in prayer.

Minutes: Council unanimously agreed to accept minutes.

Treasurer's Report: see page 10 of packet.

Commission Reports:

MPC: Each Commission has submitted Annual Reports for 2018, rosters and goals for 2019. Next meeting June 17.

Education: Requests a second person be hired as Nursery Attendant during Church Services. The Executive Committee has agreed to use monies in "Transforming Lives" budget to cover cost until new budgets are drafted.

Stewardship: As in packet.

Outreach: As in packet.

Parish Life: As in packet. Reminder to Commissions that Clara Kosmela, chair, has requested ideas for use of proceeds from recent Garage Sale.

Worship: As in packet. Commission asks who uses information gathered on the red pew pads before they simply replace because "we've always had them". There was general agreement that there should be a reason for asking people to "sign in". Discussion led to possible additional uses: knowing who is in the building, identifying people who may need a personal contact. Could this be done in another way? Betsy moved and John seconded: that Council ask MPC to form an Ad Hoc Committee to explore the use of an easily accessible, and user friendly, computer technology which might serve a variety of purposes. Motion Passed. All were in agreement that use should include a "human touch" MPC should suggest to Committee that they explore the computer program currently in use for member information as well as a program called: "My Attendance Tracker"

Property: Thanks to the Congregation for approving 86 to 0, the resolution to move ahead with replacement of AC Units in the Sanctuary. Apostles Preschool Board donated $5,000 toward the project. Another $ 7,000 is expected from two other donations. Stepping Stones were placed into Brubaker Run on Friday by Eric McLauren and Chuck Erisman. The stones will hold the bank, and make access for stream study safer. Sanctuary Lighting Project is out on bid to two other contractors. The resolution is expected to spread light further. Cost is expected to be about $90,000. Purchase of Compact Tractor is under study. The current equipment is limited in capacity, and becoming aged. New Electric Supplier: contract will be for 3 years at 0.477 kwh. Capital Campaign Committee: Tom Weaver and Herb Forry will represent the Property Commission on this committee forming to plan for the updating of Sanctuary, and building in advance of our upcoming 50th Anniversary (2021).

Pastor's Report: As in Packet. Kathy expressed gratitude for some time off in the midst of a very busy month. Kathy circulated the response to our questions regarding the request from New Beginnings Evangelical Church to share space at Church of Apostles. Council members noted a variety of conflicts with current uses of the building. While wanting to be encouraging to the New Beginnings Evangelical Church, the general consensus was that we should not continue to consider sharing the building with them. Several members had suggestions of spaces NBEC might explore which Kathy will share with their Pastor. Communications Coordinator: Kathy met with Mary Tunison this week, to share our appreciation of her work here. Mary expresses her sense that this is a great place to work. She is still under contract to the temporary agency. Kathy was encouraged to explore when/how we could hire her directly, and whether that could be done at a cost comparable to what we are paying agency.

Old Business: Lids are now available at the coffee table in lobby, and people seem to be using them. A retirement party will be held June 9 between services for Cindy Kahler, who goes on vacation after that. She will return in July as a part-time interim organist, and accompanist. The Executive Committee met with Nate Sheffer yesterday regarding his return from Medical Leave at the end of June. Communications Coordinator now has her own email: maryt@apostlesucc.org. Student intern's email is: jparedes@lanasterseminary.edu.

New Business: Jan Reed estate settlement: Papers need to be signed and notarized on behalf of the church to transfer funds. A quorum of the Council is needed to approve receipt, and direct the President and Vice President to sign the papers. Members present suggest email be sent to all Council members stressing the importance of their attendance at a special meeting for purposes of approving action on this matter.

Nominating Committee: To be put together now to prepare slate prior to Annual Meeting in November. Donna Carr, VP acknowledges that it is her role to form that Committee. "Food for Thought": Penn Central Conference has prepared a video from which we will challenge our collective thought between meetings. This month we are each asked to "imagine you are a visitor to your Church, how do you find out where you are going; where is the Parlor, the Restrooms? Do you feel comfortable? Will you return?"

Closing Prayer: offered by Pastor Kuhn.

Meeting Adjourned: 8:53 pm

Next Meeting: June 17, 2019 at 7 pm in the Parlor
Respectfully Submitted,
Barbara S. Achtermann, Secretary

Outreach

Did you Know. . .

By Elizabeth Bischoff

Our church encompasses more than 2 services on Sunday. We have many activities using our facilities almost every day of every week. . .from Apostles Pre-school to The Academy of Arts and Sciences. . .from Cooking Club to gardening, Bible talks to Book Club. . .movie night to fishing in Rader Park, etc. You name it and you can probably find someone with the same interest to start a new activity using our church facilities. We are blessed to have such beautiful, useful facilities available to all for so many activities.

Did you know that most of these activities have many active participants who are not members of our church? Do you realize what a great opportunity we have to invite these participants to join us in worship on Sundays? Let's all do our part to encourage them to Come Sunday and ensure everyone knows they are welcome!

FOOD BANK CURRENT NEEDS

Peanut butter, tuna helper, canned fruit

APOSTLES ASSISTANCE FUND NEEDS:

Laundry detergent, toilet paper, paper towels, dish detergent, dish cloths, shampoo and deodorant.

STAMP DONATIONS

Thank you stamp savers. Keep saving stamps for the Wounded Veterans. Drop off in the office for Skip Rhodes.

APOSTLES CARING CARTS

Next ministry in the Apostles Caring Cart: Collect items for the August Blessing Bag assembly to be filled with breakfast items. This program benefits citizens returning to society who have been released from prison. They leave prison with almost nothing and these Blessing Bags will help to ease their stress upon release. Requested items will be posted on a board & easel in the Narthex. All those interested in participating, please take a sticky note from the board, purchase the item listed, and deposit items either in the Apostles Caring Cart or the tables in the sanctuary. Items will be collected until August 18th, the day the bags will be assembled during the first service.

Submission deadline for the August Crown is July 19, 2019.

ADOPT A SENIOR

Attention all members! The Outreach Commission is very excited to launch a new ministry called Adopt a Senior! There are so many seniors in our congregation who are unable to attend church for health reasons or other reasons. So, let's take church to them! Not literally, of course, but we think it would be wonderful for our church families to adopt these individuals who need some extra care and attention. This adoption would perhaps mean a phone call once a week, a visit once a month, a special treat once in awhile, a card in the mail, etc.

Rev. Kuhn has a list of some names of seniors who would love to be adopted. If you are willing to participate in this ministry please contact Jane McCartney at (717)392-4844 or Rev Kuhn. Let's show our elder members that we care! ♥

CONGRATUATIONS CATHY KENLIN

We celebrate with Cathy Kenlin the completion of her MDiv from Lancaster Theological Seminary. She did her work there evenings and weekends for over 5 years while maintaining her "day job".

Cathy has enhanced our worship life with the prayers she has written and permitted to be used in our services. She plans to continue to write worship aids whatever else she is called to do. We wish her Shalom!

Green Team

Where Does it All Go?

By Carol Nielsen

Two members of the Green Team visited LCSWMA recently. What is that? It is the Lancaster County Solid Waste Management Authority.

1954 was the year Lancaster and the surrounding towns realized that coming together to solve a waste problem was the best way to move forward. Now, they manage over 1 million tons of solid waste each year from Lancaster and Dauphin Counties. This is not the group that picks up your garbage, but it is where your company takes it.

We visited the Lancaster Waste-to-Energy, WTE, facility where waste is transformed into renewable energy. The process decreases the amount of trash going into the landfill by 90 %. The neutralized ash is then taken to the landfill.

LCSWMA offers free tours to 4 facilities. The WTE tour lasts 60 minutes and children must be at least 10 years old. Times given for tours are listed on the LCSWMA.org web site under educational resources. It is a very interesting field trip.

For further information, contact either Hannah Royer or Carol Nielsen.

High School Graduates 2019

By Barbara Achtermann

They used to skip their way down our hallway to Church School Class. This year, they walked sedately to "Pomp and Circumstance" and graduated from High School. Kayla Azaroff graduated from Elizabethtown High School. She will attend American University in Washington D.C. and major in political science. Lancaster newspapers listed Kirsten Clouser as a Warwick graduate. So far, no news of her plans for the future.

Trey Didominico graduated from Hempfield High. He was named the winner of this year's Kenneth Bernhardt Scholarship and will attend Pennsylvania College of Technology. He'll be learning to design "smart homes" so keep Trey in mind if you plan to convert to smart home technology.

Also graduating from Hempfield High was Alexa Neiderer. She will use the Helen Elmer Scholarship at Juniata College this fall. She'll be balancing a major in biochemistry with a minor in Spanish. Following College, Alexa wants to attend medical school. Her joy and skills in sports, and her cello are going along for the ride. Ole!
