Pastor's Corner - Happy New Year

In case you missed it and didn't have a big party and celebration, the western church has started a new 3-year cycle of the lectionary. Our liturgical (church) calendar does not begin on January 1st but instead on the first Sunday of Advent. This year on November 27th (first Sunday of Advent) we began again with "Year A". We use the lectionary as appointed daily scripture readings for each day for 3 years. In the church, pastors often preach from the lectionary readings for the appropriate Sunday. Pastors are not obligated to use these scriptures and most choose their own, especially when doing a sermon series as we have done this fall at Apostles. We can use the lectionary to structure our personal scripture reading time. One shortcoming of the lectionary is that it does not cover the entire Bible and often skips over the difficult passages. The major difference is the gospel that it focuses on during Advent.

Year A: Gospel of Matthew

Year B: Gospel of Mark

Year C: Gospel of Luke

Gospel of John is covered during Easter

Historically, the lectionary comes from unknown and mysterious origins. No one knows when it was instituted but Jewish history makes claims to having specific texts read during the time of Moses. Christians have references to assigned scripture readings dating back to the early church in the 3rd century, which was probably an adopted influence from the Jewish practice. Of course, the church being the church does not use the same lectionary. Until the 2nd Vatican council in the 1960s, most of the church used John Wesley's one year cycle lectionary, while the Heidelberg Catechism was divided into a 52-weeks lectionary and used by the Reformed Churches. Our current version, The Revised Common Lectionary, was introduced in 1992. Vanderbilt Divinity School hosts a very easy-to-use online version at lectionary.library.vanderbilt.edu.

So if this year your New Year resolution is to read the Bible, you can sign up and receive a daily email with your readings for that day. biblestudymedia.com/blogs/blog/subscribe-to-our-daily-lectionary-devotionals

A Message from the Council President

Hope

Here we are in the season of Advent. One of my favorite activities for our family in the Christmas season was to set up the Advent wreath and to TRY to incorporate an Advent meditation into our supper meal time. I know that every family's life is very busy and traditions like this can slide into the back seat. But I am encouraging all of COA's members to observe an Advent tradition....especially in this season of change as we begin to dig into the Agile Church's recommendations for us to consider.

I have HOPE.....hope that we will begin to look at ways to revitalize our church. That we will begin to look at the ways we have been changing successfully, like on-line worship which reached out to people who haven't felt comfortable coming to church or have been unable due to whatever circumstances they face or busy schedules they face. The fact that we have become so used to the technology in our worship (like the two screens and images projected) that when they were missing, it impacted our quality of worship both in the sanctuary and over the air waves.

I have HOPE that members will commit to becoming involved in the work that Agile Church's recommendations may lead to....continuing work by the Implementation Team and possibly small group sessions to discern our Mission and Vision.

I have HOPE that we will experience the promises of God and Love, Joy and Peace that is represented in our celebration of the Advent season and birth of Jesus Christ. I pray that we carry that message of HOPE forward into 2023 and beyond.

It has been my honor to serve as your Council President for the past two years. I ask that you support the ongoing leadership of the church as you have supported me. Become involved, ask questions, join a study group, invite a friend or neighbor to church especially during this wonderful Advent season. It's time to "take off our bibs and put on our aprons" and begin to serve as we promised when we joined the church.

Blessings,
Donna Carr

Church Happenings and News

Children's Shopping Night & Cookies with an Elf (6 -7 PM)

Please join us on Monday December 5th for our Children's Shopping Night and Cookies with an Elf! Children will have the chance to purchase gifts (prices $1-$5) for every member of their family, including pets! After shopping we have a special elf friend who will be entertaining us with Christmas music and take notes for Santa. We will have treats to eat and a table for making "Reindeer food" and letters for Santa.

Sunday School Teachers Needed

As we move forward, we are currently looking for additional help with the Preschool-Early Elementary Sunday school class. Anyone interested can contact our office to express interest and it will be shared with the Education Commission. Thank you for helping us with this important work!

Bazaar Bake Sale Thank-You

The Apostles Choir would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to the many, many...MANY of you who blessed our bake sale efforts at the bazaar in November. We began packaging your goodies at 9AM on that Friday and the generosity from your kitchens just kept arriving all morning! It felt like manna from heaven! By 2PM we had filled to capacity three long tables with cookies, cakes, cupcakes, brownies, breads, candy and other assorted treats. Obviously, the word is out that folks at Apostles can bake! We were swamped with buyers as soon as the doors opened and by 11:00 AM we were well on the way to selling out. Our sale proceeds are divided to support the church, a Christmas donation to a needy family, and miscellaneous expenses of the choir for the year. Again, thank you for supporting us so deliciously and an immense thank you to everyone who volunteered to supply, prep and man the table!

Thank You to All

For all who helped with the 45th and final "Christmas in the Country Bazaar" on Saturday, Nov 12th, thank you! It was a wonderful event that was attended by over 600 shoppers. Our vendors were pleased by the sale and those who asked were glad to hear that there will be a craft show on that weekend in 2023. Again, things ran smoothly and we are able to celebrate all that the bazaar has meant for so many years.

Christmas Service For Children

On Friday December 23rd at 6PM, please join us for our first Christmas Service for Children! Everyone (children and adults) are encouraged to wear pajamas during this service as we engage children with activities and stories about the symbols of Christmas and their meanings! This event is open to children of all ages!

Invite a Friend to Church

Christmas is a time when those who do not ordinarily attend worship will consider it. Particularly for those who are older, it is a time of remembrance and reflection on our greater purpose. People want to belong to something that is greater than themselves. So, let's invite them to join us! We do not speak or act like the Christians they see in the media. We are called to be welcoming to all without judgment. Please take time to consider the people with whom you are in contact. Who is looking for words of hope this season?

Parish Life Book Club

Book Club meets in the Narthex on the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 2:00 pm! Please consider joining us whether you have read the book or not. Below are our upcoming books and days. Any questions? Contact Clara Kosmela at (717) 569 - 9960.

Upper Room Daily Devotionals

Looking to grow your spiritual practices with daily prayer, scripture, and reflection? The Upper Room is a great resource provided by the church to aid you in knowing and experiencing God more fully. Pick up a copy any Sunday at the Welcome Center or call the church office if you need a copy mailed to you. The devotionals are free with donations being welcome.

Preschool News

November was a short month for our children at Apostles Community Preschool. We counted our blessings and all that we are thankful for. We learned about the First Thanksgiving and had a school-wide Bear feast with Friendship Trail Mix and danced "The Turkey Pokey!"

During our "Caring and Sharing" project for Thanksgiving, the children brought in food items for the church's food bank.

Looking ahead to December, ACP will be performing "Joy to the World" as our annual Christmas program. Christmas performances will take place on Thursday, December 15th and Friday, December 16th. We will be partnering with COA for a fun night on December 5th... Cookies with a ukulele-playing Elf & ACP Parent Council's Christmas Shopping Room Night!

Our next Dine-Out Fundraiser is at Isaac's on Centerville Road on December 7th. Please consider supporting our school!

ACP Registration

For the 2023-2024 school year, Apostles Community Preschool will be offering a variety of classes for children ages 2-5, from September through May. Please contact our registrar, Jeannie Clausen (jclausen.acp@gmail.com), if you are interested in registering your child for any of our classes! Registration opens to the general public on January 2, 2023, but church members can register their children during our pre-registration period which will run through the month of December.

Holiday Gifting Ministry

We are excited to once again collect gifts for the students at Martin Elementary School. We would love to spread holiday cheer to forty students who need our support. Please consider participating in this special ministry by taking a gift tag from the poster on the bulletin board next to the fellowship table, buying the suggested gift, wrapping it, tape the gift tag on the gift, and return it to the large Caring Cart. TWO VERY important things to remember are to SIGN YOUR NAME next to the number of your tag and gifts MUST be brought to church NO LATER THAN DECEMBER 18th. Directions are on the poster if you need more clarification. Thank you so much for your support of this wonderful gifting ministry!

Refugee Holiday Gifting

Won't you please be a Christmas angel and consider donating a gift card toward our two refugee families from the Congo and Tanzania? It would be super if you could donate any amount from either Target or Wal-Mart (or a VISA gift card), and then members of the Welcome Team will take the families shopping for clothing and/or toys in mid-December. You may also donate a check to COA with "Refugee Christmas Fund" in the memo section. The last day to donate will be Sunday, December 18. There will be a gold foil-wrapped gift box sitting in the Narthex marked "Refugee Christmas Gifts". Thanks so much for your kindness and generosity in helping to make this season a happy one for Bilombele, Vincent, Shukuru, Mlasi, Toshe, Auser, Jango, and Salome. Any questions, contact Linda Lewis at (717) 333-1327.

Overwhelmed with JOY!

Did you know that the Christmas Fund helps to provide supplementation for retired clergy and lay employees? Our gifts of gratitude and love bring hope to the hopeless, joy to the sorrowful, and deep love to those who have ministered in God's love for so long. By giving generously to the Christmas Fund, we will help retired clergy, church staff, and their families to pay bills, maintain health insurance, and meet emergency needs. Year after year, our gifts make a difference, easing the anxiety of constant financial worries.

Will you give the JOY of sharing in this fund? Small amounts from many people can make a BIG difference in the lives of retired clergy living on small pensions. We have been blessed with so much. You can give through your Church of the Apostles envelope, a check, cash or on Realm.

Bethany Children's Home (Womelsdorf) and Hoffman Homes for Youth (Littlestown) UCC Homes for youth

While both of these Homes in our area began as orphanages, they have transitioned toward providing care and treatment for children and youth who have been traumatized, abused, neglected and are suffering severe mental health conditions. Bethany serves over 300 children and youth each year & Hoffman Home serves up to 110 youth/young adults. The youth struggle with and receive individualized treatment plans to help build trust, promote self-awareness, and lifelong recovery.

These homes have had a 95% success rate enabling youth/young adults to return to their homes or care groups. That's amazing! We are fortunate to have these facilities to help struggling youth in our area. Will you give generously to help support these valuable ministries? Donations can be made through Realm, Vanco or Special Giving Envelopes.

Church of the Apostles will again be beautifully decorated for the 2022 Advent and Christmas season.

The wonderful decorations in the sanctuary, narthex and other areas are funded by the congregation as memorials or in honor of family members and friends.

You are invited to make a memorial offering in any amount to help with the cost of these decorations. Please fill out the form below and return it to the church office on or before December 21, 2022.

A memorial insert will be included in all the bulletins for the services on December 24, listing the donors and the persons honored or memorialized.

You may then take a poinsettia plant with you, if you wish, from the narthex after the 3:00 PM service and from the narthex or sanctuary after the 7PM service, or anytime during the next week. Thank you so much.

A MUSICAL NOTE WITH LARS POTTEIGER

What is your favorite Christmas carol? I've been asked this question on more than one occasion, but struggle to choose a single piece as there are so many wonderful options in the canon. I do have a favorite collection of carols that was penned in 1942 by Benjamin Britten while crossing the Atlantic Ocean on a ship returning to England. Ceremony of Carols is one of Britten's most famous works and is one I highly recommend if you have not heard it before. I enjoy this piece so much, I make a point of listening to it at least once a year around Christmas time.

Ceremony of Carols is a collection of ten carols that is framed by a medieval chant melody. These carols date from the fourteenth to the sixteenth centuries, yet sound both modern and timeless. Britten arranged these carols for a unique ensemble that is lighter in tone and overall sound; he uses a three-part children's choir with solo voices and harp. This is an atypical ensemble compared to most other Christmas pieces that often employ brass, full choir, and organ. Ceremony of Carols is lighter in tone because of this choice in orchestration, but preserves fiery and exciting moments. Britten took the text from The English Galaxy of Shorter Poems, which is primarily written in Middle English, with some Early Modern English and Latin as well. He combines all these elements into a beautifully compelling and unique piece of Christmas music.

Family Dinner Night and the Children's Choir rehearsal are back on-site at COA in room 303 on Wednesday evenings. The family dinner will start at 6pm, followed by the Children's Choir rehearsal at 6:30pm. Feel free to attend for food and family fellowship even if your children are not planning on attending choir. Please contact Children's Choir Director Breanne Cornielle if you would like to attend (bzipko@gmail.com).

The Apostles Academy is hosting a Christmas concert titled "Sounds of the Season", featuring former Apostles' Bell Choir Director Ron Bellamy and his wife, Linda Lorgus, on December 18th at 3pm in the sanctuary.

May Christ's light shine brightly in your heart this Christmas!

Children's Activities in the Sanctuary

We currently have two spaces set up for the children in the sanctuary where there are things to do while they are in our space. There is a space for children two and under by the "Go and Do Likewise" window and a table with activity bags by the "Lantern" window. The Education Commission is currently exploring adding a toy box to the parlor for those who choose to use that space to watch the service and still interact with the community before and after worship, and they are looking to add additional activities in the sanctuary to keep small ones occupied and interested during worship.
