Pastor's Corner

Those of us who are studying Transforming Congregational Culture with Rev. Motz are learning about how the culture has changed over the years and considering the questions of how we are to move forward. We CANNOT just continue to do what we have always done. The wisdom of "build it and they will come" (referring to physical spaces) is no longer true. Religion has moved from being transactional to transformational.

Add on to this the pandemic which is limiting the size of our gatherings and keeping us more separated than we wish. The pandemic also forced us to push worship and some of our meetings online which has helped us to stay in contact with those who have moved away and opened us to many others looking for a spiritual home with whom to connect.

The next year will be a time of risk-taking and trying new things. This is a time to be curious and creative because this is a metamorphosis moment for the church. So we are looking into how we may offer some different online experiences for those who are looking for something during the week to keep them going. This is a time for us to hear your wisdom on the questions: What did you miss and long for that you couldn't do? What did you NOT miss? Where are you being fed spiritually? What might we invent going forward? Why has Christ called us together for this time?

Please consider these questions and make an appointment to talk with Rev. Motz, Donna Carr, myself or any other commission chair or Council member to share your thoughts. Look for additional opportunities to reconnect or become more closely connected with us.

Blessings & peace,

Pastor Kuhn

A Message from the Council President

It seems hard to believe that we have arrived at SEPTEMBER already! Where did the summer months go? In our church, September brings "Rally Day" when we reassemble after the slower, less active summer-time of our church season and begin to re-focus on what God may be trying to tell us. Here is some food for thought from a reflection on James 1:19...."Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry." In this time of MANY different opinions about so many things in our country, I have been trying hard to become a good listener and to suspend pre-judgements.

Here's some homework for you. Take a drive around Lancaster city or county (or across the state or country) and take in the many lawn signs and bill boards. Or tune across the TV stations or radio stations (not just the one you usually tune into). On one side of the street, you might see a giant American flag draped around a bald eagle and a big truck covered with patriotic stickers that sits in the driveway. On the other side of the street you might see a lawn sign highlighting the latest social justice issues. Are these people feuding or are they friends? Is it possible that both people are believers in Jesus? We are called to live out the words of James quoted earlier, but too often we stubbornly hold onto our opinions and aren't willing to stop and consider what others are thinking. When we are talking with someone, are we truly listening to understand or are we already formulating an answer in our minds? My mother always said, "You have two ears and one mouth for a reason".

As we come back to church more actively in this fall season, may we be challenged to be good listeners. If you are participating in the church-wide book study, I pray that you have actively listened to others' hopes and dreams for Church of the Apostles. It will require ALL of us actively participating, listening and sharing our hearts' desires with our fellow members. AND, it will require ALL of us digging in and putting in the work to become respectful of others and see them as children of God and see His Grace in each other. And it will require ALL of us to consider how we can be of SERVICE to others both inside the walls of COA and outside in our community.

Blessings!
Donna Carr

Council Corner

Council was pleased to learn that more than 25 people have signed up to participate in the congregational book study, Transforming Congregational Culture by Anthony Robinson. At the next Council meeting, we will revisit the topic of forming an investigative team to identify a partner, like Agile Church, to help us explore possible future directions and growth opportunities for Church of the Apostles.

A revised version of the Christian Behavioral Covenant was approved by Council at the July meeting. The covenant is biblically based and shows that it matters to us how we treat one another. We mention the covenant twice in our church by-laws. The basic principles of the covenant were not changed; however, the wording was modified to reflect a more positive approach. You may not have associated the principles with the covenant, but we have been exploring these concepts in our worship theme this summer.

Schuyler Nissly met with Council to explore some of her ideas on how best to market our church and our activities to the public (and to ourselves!) If you have photos or other information to share with her, please let her know.

We are beginning to prepare for 2022 in terms of defining our budget and in identifying new Council members. Prayerfully consider how your gifts, talents and treasures can enhance the ministries of our church. Remember, you are always invited to attend any Commission and/or Council meetings.

Looking to grow your spiritual practices with daily prayer, scripture, and reflection? The Upper Room is a great resource provided by the church to aid you in knowing and experiencing God more fully. Pick up a copy any Sunday at the Welcome Center or call the church office if you need a copy mailed to you. The devotionals are free with donations being welcome.

Realm Information and Updates

Record Worship Participation From Your Phone

Knowing the need of churches to remain connected (and in new ways), you can now register your worship attendance using a mobile device. This is true whether you are worshipping in-person or remotely. All you need to access this option is the Realm Connect app (available for free from the App Store and Google Play) and a Realm Log in.

Once logged into the Realm Connect app (using the code: apostlesucc), select "Mobile Check-In" from the main menu. You will be able to register your attendance up to an hour before the service and until the service's end. If you would like to receive automatic notifications, select "Settings" at the bottom of the menu options. From there turn on "Push Notifications on This Device."

This new feature is one of the ways Realm is helping us remain the strong community of faith God has inspired us to be. Continue to look for additional functions and features as we continue to grow into all of what Realm has to offer our congregation.

Prayer Workshop: Grow In Your Discipleship

Though we may assume everyone knows how to pray, most people are intimidated and uncomfortable, especially when it comes to public prayer. Even Jesus' disciples asked Jesus how to pray. Join in this four-week workshop where we will learn and experiment together in the art, and deeply powerful spiritual discipline, of public prayer. In-person and Zoom options will be available each week with participants choosing the option best for them. For more information contact Pastor Joe. To register, call the church office or click on "In Person Sessions" or "Zoom Sessions" below:

In Person Sessions: Wednesdays, September 8th – 29th, 11:00am - 11:45am, in the Parlor

Zoom Sessions: Thursdays, September 9th – 30th, 7:00pm – 7:45pm

COA Garage Sale

The dates for the Church Garage Sale are getting close! I hope you have selected items you will donate for us to sell. They can be taken to Fellowship Hall 9 am to 9pm September 20th to 23rd and 9 to noon on Thursday, September 24th.

I hope you have agreed to cashier and/or help Monday, Sept. 20th to Thursday, Sept. 23rd. All donated items must be sorted, priced, and put on tables. Clothing must be sorted, folded, or hung on hangers. We need many helpers for this!

Another way you can help is to donate hot dogs (not chicken), hot dog rolls, sodas (regular Coke, Diet Coke, Sprite, Orange), 24 bottles of water, or chocolate cake with peanut butter icing. If we do not need to buy these items, it helps our profit considerably. We also appreciate small baggies of 3-4 cookies or brownies.

If you are willing to donate something, please call the church office (717-392-5718) and tell them what you will donate. If you attend in-person worship and filled out a food request form you do not need to call the office.

“No Wrinkles on the Soul”

A new women's group is forming to talk about faith, scripture and navigating the aging process. We will use the book No Wrinkles on the Soul by Richard L. Morgan as our guide. It is not necessary to purchase the book to participate. We will meet on the 4th Wednesday of the month in the narthex from 9:30-10:30 am. Our next gathering will be Wednesday, Sept. 29th.

“Gifts of Imperfection”

In June, Pastor Kuhn preached on the Brené Brown's book, The Gifts of Imperfection, and several of you expressed interest in getting together to talk about it. A Zoom gathering on Tuesday, September 28, at 7 pm has been created to share initial thoughts and see if there is interest in having a larger conversation. Please check the calendar on the website or click here to register. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

Mark Your Calendar!

Sunday, October 10 is Clergy Appreciation Sunday. We will have two labeled baskets on the table in the Narthex to receive cards of appreciation and thanks for Pastor Kathy and Pastor Joe. Take a moment to express your thanks for all they do for our congregation.

They have previously received several extra vacation days to use over the next few months as a message of acknowledgement of their extra efforts during this especially trying COVID season.

Pastoral Coverage

In an earlier article, the Executive Commission shared that in gratitude for their leadership during the pandemic, we had given each of the pastors some additional vacation time in 2021. Neither pastor has taken much vacation to date so they will be taking that much-needed time off in the upcoming months.

Pastor Kuhn and Pastor Motz have scheduled their vacations so that at least one of them will always be available to the congregation. Again, we thank them for handling with grace whatever 2020-2021 threw our way in terms of COVID-19. We hope their time away will allow them to rejuvenate, decompress and connect with their families.

Harvest Home Sunday

In celebration of God's Autumn bounty, you are invited to share a portion of it with those less fortunate. We ask each member of our church family to bring non-perishable food and/or fresh produce from your home garden on Harvest Home Sunday - September 12, 2021. Monetary gifts may go into your special offering envelope for Harvest Home/Food Bank or donated any way you chose. These donations will support Church of the Apostles Food Bank and Hempfield Food Pantry in Landisville, where our Seeds of Hope garden produce is delivered each week.

If you have any questions, call Linda Shock (717) 371-8457.

With gratitude and thanks to almighty God for which bounty that he bestows upon us,
The Outreach Commission.
